

Sen. Jeffrey Wentworth

The following is a copy of a sworn ethics complaint forwarded to the Texas Ethics Commission on April 3, 2008. The only difference being the inclusion of photos/images and a detailed listing of the 113 trips that Wentworth took all over the world/country via the use of campaign funds.

At page 23 (bottom of this complaint) you'll find a copy of a letter dated April 3, 2008 that was sent to Sen. Wentworth alerting him to the filing of this complaint. At page 25 you'll see a list of past and/or present members of the Bohemian Grove, which will include the names of the corporations and/or public institutions that employed said members.

After reviewing the facts below, it will become painfully clear that these expenditures were of a personal nature having absolutely nothing to do with Wentworth's official officeholder duties. In fact, it had everything to do with havin a good ol' time at the expense of his contributors.

The Grove is a 2700 acre campground located north of San Francisco in Monte Rio that belongs to a private San Francisco men's art club known as the Bohemian Club. Only active members of the Club – known as "Bohos" (should be Ahos) and their guests may visit the Grove.

The primary activities at the Grove are varied. The entertainment is expensive, including an elaborate Grove Play known as "High Jinx" where female roles are played by men (members) in drag. There are numerous individual camps where the members stay for two weeks (in or out of drag) named as (a) hillbillies, (b) Cave Man, (c) Stowaway, (d) Uplifters, (e) Lost Angles, (f) Silverado squatters, and (g) hideaway. Comments by President Nixon and others leave no doubt that these expenditures by Wentworth were of a personal nature.

President Nixon speaking to White House advisors: (Source: 1999 White House Tapes)

"But it's not just the ratty part of town. The upper class in San Francisco is that way. The Bohemian Grove, that I attend from time to time – the (inaudible) – but it is the most faggy goddamn thing that you could ever imagine. The San Francisco crowd that goes in there, it's just terrible. I can't even shake hands with anybody from San Francisco."

After infiltrating the Grove in '89, Philip Weiss – Spy Magazine reporter said:

"The mood is reminiscent of high school. There's no end to the pee-pee and penis jokes, suggesting that these men, advanced in so many other ways, were emotionally arrested sometime during adolescent."

A worker at the Grove told about a camp called Poison Oak, that served a lunch called "Bull's Balls Lunch," where everyone came by to eat roasted cattle testicles brought by a rancher from near Fresno, CA. He also reported that another camp had a soft porn collection. Wentworth and the boys must have some awfully big gonads to eat this kind of crap!

U.C. Santa Cruz professor G. William Domhoff, stated in his April 2005 report titled: "The Power Elite at Summer Camp" that "Perhaps the most enjoyable service is on the Wine Committee, which meets about five times a year for "working" sessions. In its annual report, the committee tried 35 new wines and accepted 10 to a club stock that has over 125 labels. It is the committee's duty to assure that 3,500 bottles are available for members while at the Grove.

Racial/Gender Discrimination

Peter Phillips, Associate Sociology Professor at Sonoma State University wrote a dissertation on the Bohemian Club in 1994, and made the following comments.

Historically the Bohemian Club was 100% white; however in the 1960s it gradually admitted a few black men (3-4,000 active members – 20-25,000 over the years). However, the Club still retains its Ivory Soap purity rating of 99%. The Club does not now nor has it ever allowed women as members. In order to overcome any specious claim that the members were practicing misogynists, they recently have allowed women into the club; however, they are only allowed to serve food, work on the shooting range (as targets?), and in the parking lot as valets.

The Bohemian Grove summer encampments have become one of the most famous private men's retreats in the world. Members and several hundred so-called world-class guests (aka, degenerate aristocrats) gather annually in July to recreate what can best be described as "the greatest men's party on earth." Lasting three weekends, the outdoor event includes lectures, entertainment (guys in drag), rituals, plays, theater, and enormous amounts of food and booze.

Photographic evidence of activities at the Bohemian Grove

The following photographs were obtained via a search on the Internet and clearly demonstrate that Wentworth's expenditure of over $18,000 in campaign funds was without doubt personal.

Since this photo was taken in 1957, I can't say that Wentworth is a member of the drag-queen chorus; however, if I was a betting man, I'd bet that the girl, I'm sorry, I mean the guy that is third from the left could be Wentworth. Of course it could also be the CEO of Proctor & Gamble, Standard Oil, Ford Motor Co., Bechtel Corp., or a member of the board of General Motors.

I don't know who in the hell these guys are, but I can assure you that I ain't about to pay $25,000 or more to find out. Ditto for the fellow below.

This is Moloch, the chief god of the Ammonites and Grove, which is prominently featured at the Grove and where they hold mock human sacrifices.

Power Party Photograph by Gabriel Moulin, 1915

To purge himself of worldly concerns, a member of the elite Bohemian Club participated in a 1915 Cremation of Care ceremony—complete with candles and a robed and hooded comrade to guide him. This private club of influential men still meets annually north of San Francisco and uses this symbolic ritual to kick off its summer retreat. But today the ceremony involves burning a mummy-like effigy named Care at the foot of the group’s mascot: a 40-foot tall concrete owl.

We don't know who this is, but it may be the CEO of DuPont.

Here's another group of so-called worldly he-man types spending their time gawking at a man posing for their pleasure in the nude. I don't know about you, but this ain't my idea of havin fun, how about you?

Who in the hell would enjoy watching a mock hanging? The only folks I can think of would be those who were hoping good ol' rich-white-boys from California would mimic the fun and games their brethren from Biloxi or Stone Mountain, Georgia have enjoyed for decades. I suppose if the fella was real, he should have known better than to hang around a group of fools like this, right?

This is what our exalted leaders call the Cremation of Care ceremony. It involves the poling of a small boat across a lake containing an effigy of Care (called "Dull Care"). Hooded members receive the effigy from the ferryman which is then placed on an altar and then set on fire. This "Cremation of Care" symbolizes that the members leave behind the "dull cares" of conscience (what conscience?), hence the imagery of human sacrifice, which would normally occasion the reproach of conscience. The ceremony takes place next to a 45-foot high concrete owl statute (Moloch). (Source: Wikipedia.org)

Westgate Condominium Assn. = $4,256.05

Travis County records at www.traviscad.org/travisdetail.php?theKey=196946 disclose that the lodging fees Wentworth paid specifically relate to a condominium him and his wife Karleen own at 1122 Colorado Street in Austin. These county records show that Wentworth and his wife have owned this property since Aug. 14, 1989. It is my understanding that it is illegal for a legislator to use campaign funds to pay rental fees to himself, which is clearly the case here.

Admirals Club Fees = $2,350

- ▶ 20000718, 300.00
- ▶ 20060716, 400.00
- ▶ 20050816, 400.00
- ▶ 20040708, 450.00
- ▶ 20020630, 400.00
- ▶ 20010616, 400.00

The Admirals Club is an uppity club catering to arrogant and pompous individuals. It is a given that it has absolutely nothing to do with neither Wentworth's official officeholder duties nor his campaign activities. The amenities provided to Wentworth at the expense of his contributors are:

- ▶ Showers and children's rooms in select locations.
- ▶ U.S. lounge locations offer complimentary coffee, tea, soft drinks and snacks (regular Texas folks pay for their own). Private bars offer alcoholic beverages for purchase.
- ▶ Exclusive Special Offers from fine companies: Bose, Hertz, Lenovo, Regus, Samsonite, Starwood Hotels, SkyMall and World Wine Estates.

Auto Leases – Infiniti/Lexus = $124,701.86

- ▶ 2007 lease payments = $20,544.38
- ▶ 2006 lease payments = $15,495.36
- ▶ 2005 lease payments = $18,700.12
- ▶ 2004 lease payments = $5,459.52
- ▶ 2003 lease payments = $24,592.84
- ▶ 2002 lease payments = $16,976.28
- ▶ 2001 lease payments = $22,933.36

$124,701.86 = $17,815 a year = $1,485 a month

I don't know what kind of Infiniti or Lexus one can lease that costs an average of almost $1500 a month over a 7-year period of time. Moreover, it would be frivolous for Wentworth to claim that he never used either of these luxury vehicles for personal use. This is especially true given the fact that during this 7-year period of time, the Texas Legislature was only in session for 24-months.

Gifts - $64,722.76

From 2000 through 2007, Wentworth spent nearly $60,000 on gifts to fellow senators and others. Some of the more outrageous (aka, unreasonable and therefore improper) amounts spent are:

- $3,618.57 in early 2000 to purchase windbreakers for fellow senators
  - $3,491.10 for an oil painting for the Capitol in April 2000
  - $800.00 for a gift for his chief of staff in Feb. 2005
  - $3,951.13 – Lapel pin for George W. Bush in Nov. 2007
  - $3,085.13 – Lapel pin for former Gov. Dolph Briscoe

Membership Dues/Fees = $31,103

Wentworth's insatiable appetite for using over $31,000 in campaign funds to pay membership dues/fees to numerous organizations is outrageous. This is especially true for the $9,000 paid to exclusive clubs like Club Girard and the Austin Club, clubs that the vast majority of his constituents could not afford to be members of. I can't imagine that the payment to these private clubs and/or exorbitant membership fees paid to other organizations can be construed as proper campaign expenditures.

- Misc. fees/dues = $22,115
  - Club Girard Dues = $4,230 (2001-2007)
  - Austin Club Dues = $4,758 (2001-2007)

Wentworth – The Ultimate Traveling Man - $102,009.88

Wentworth gives a new meaning to "Travelin' Man." From 2000 through 2007 he spent $44,532.54 for lodging expenses and $57,477.64 for air fare. During this time he took at least 113 trips lasting at least 325 days. It is obvious that on at least one occasion he flew to Europe on Air France's "Concord." In addition, his arrogance knows no levels in that he appears to fly first class on many occasions. Examples of several outrageous airfares are shown below along with current roundtrip prices advertised on the Internet on April 1, 2008.

- $8,394.20 – Berlin – (Air France) 06-09-01 = $715
- $6,009.50 – Savannah – 12-30-06 =
- $5,518.70 – 07-13-06 = $769 Austin/Tokyo
- $1,850.00 – Wash DC – 04-12-02 = $388 – 1381 miles
- $1,287.50 – New York City – 07-23-01 = $700 – 1587 miles
- $1,235.60 – Ft. Lauderdale – 11-17-07 = $365 – 1145 miles
- $1,916.70 – Amelia Island, FL – 04-03-06 = $317 – 1007 miles
- $1,384.20 – Memphis – 03-08-06 = $325 – 625 miles

- $1,543.70 – Wash DC – 02-28-06 = $388 – 1381 miles
- $959.20 – San Diego = $369 – 1129 miles

As to the specific dates and amounts spent by Wentworth, go to my website and you’ll see each and every entry from 2000 through 2007 listed. After rummaging though my memory bank, I recalled that ol’ ditty by Rikki Nelson titled “I’m a travelin’ man,” which seems appropriate since Wentworth traveled to Mexico, Berlin, Tokyo, Alaska and of course the Grove in San Francisco. The ol’ ditty goes something like this:

I’m a travelin’ man
I’ve made a lot of stops all over the world
And in every part I own the heart
Of at least one lovely girl

I’ve a pretty Seniorita waiting for me
Down in old Mexico
If you’re even in Alaska stop and see
My cute little Eskimo

Oh my sweet Fraulien down in Berlin town
Makes my heart start to yearn
And my Japan doll down in old Tokyo town
Waits for my return

Pretty San Francisco baby over the Grove
I remember the night
When we walked in the sands of the nearby cove
And I held you oh so tight

Oh, I’m a travelin’ man
Yes, I’m a travelin’ man

Rental Cars

The evidence clearly demonstrates that Wentworth repeatedly billed his campaign for rental car fees while he was engaged in personal activities. The amounts billed clearly prove this fact. Examples are as follows:

- ◆ Hertz Car Rental, Los Angeles, 20040914, 487.11
- ◆ Sunset Restaurant, Santa Barbara, 20040912, 306.98, Meal with Ken Starr/family

Wentworth drove 157 miles (one way) from Dana Point to Santa Barbara to meet with Ken Starr and his family at the Sunset Restaurant and a meal costing $306.98. In addition, Wentworth spent $73.13 on fuel to make the trip. If this ain't personal, then I don't know what the hell is. Likewise the other rental fees listed below.

- ◆ Hertz Car Rental, Ft. Lauderdale, 20071121, 552.53

- ▶ Hertz, San Diego,CA,92101,20060823,310.93

Wentworth contributions/fees to Schools he attended = $93,600

Wentworth is an alumnus of Alamo Heights High School, Texas A&M and Texas Tech Univ. School of Law. How in the world can it be legitimate for a legislator to use campaign funds to make nearly $100,000 in contributions to schools where he is an alumnus? Do you think that Wentworth advised all potential contributors that he intended to use their money in this fashion? I think not! If these are not improper campaign expenditures, then they clearly need to be.

Misc. contributions = $305,000

From 2005 to 2007, Wentworth contributed at least $305,000 to various organizations of his choosing. Again, I seriously doubt that he forewarned any of his contributors that he intended to so act when he hit them up for contributions. How can this be deemed to be proper use of campaign funds?

Contributions to Politicians/Political Organizations = $159,000

Some of Wentworth's favorite donations went to (a) Todd Staples - $25,000, (b) Judge Lori Massey - $7,000, (c) Peggy Hamric - $5,000, and (d) David Dewhurst - $5,000. These contributions represent 35% of all political contributions made by Wentworth.

Sen. Jeffrey Wentworth
25th District
San Antonio, TX

Re: Complaint filed with the Texas Ethics Commission

Dear Jeffrey:

On this date I mailed a complaint to the Texas Ethics Commission on what certainly appears to be serial violations of Title 15 of the Election Code relating to personal use of campaign funds. A copy of the complaint can be found on my website at www.noethics.net by going to “Texas Reporter” and clicking onto “Ethics complaint filed v. Sen. Jeffrey Wentworth.”

I’m particularly troubled by your membership in and/or association with the Bohemian Grove located north of San Francisco and the $18,000 you spent in campaign funds for several 16-18 day jaunts. My review of the goings-on at the Grove raises serious questions as to the efficacy of the people’s representative (that’d be you) belonging to such a group.

As you well know the Bohemian Grove unabashedly discriminates against women as it does against other minorities based on race, ethnicity, etc. I have three daughters and I personally take great offense to any group or organization that engages in misogynistic conduct aimed at openly discriminating against women. I understand that in a magnanimous gesture of equity and fairness, the practicing misogynists at the Grove now allow women in their so-called encampment, albeit for the sole purpose of acting as compliant servants of food, working on the skeet range and/or acting as valets.

The activities at the Grove are quite disturbing to say the least and I’m at loss to understand or appreciate how you can defend the use of campaign funds of over $18,000 to engage in activities that include mock human sacrifices on an alter backed by a 40-foot statute of some ancient pagan God named Moloch. Past events (may well still be going on for all I know) that are even more disquieting are mock lynchings.

It is painfully clear that the attendees at the Grove are nothing more than a bunch of arrogant, aristocratic, imperialist-buffoons that find it acceptable to engage in conduct that one would expect from practicing occultists and those of their ilk. To suggest that it is proper to use campaign funds to engage in demented revelry and occultist type activities that includes excessive drinking is of course absurd. The assertion that the members of the Grove are the crème de le crème of corporate/governmental America is a rather sad thought to say the least.

As I suspect you know, at least 50% (350,000 or more) of your constituents are women. In addition, about 35% of your constituency base is comprised of African-Americans (4.3%), Hispanics (26.2%), and Asians, etc. (3.1%)—Source: 2000 census. I cannot imagine that a plurality of women and/minorities in the 25th District would be pleased to discover that you are a member of the Grove. Of course there can be no dispute that you should have no trouble garnering at least 95% of the misogynist vote in San Antonio in the next election.

Obviously, I cannot comment on whether or not you have been or will in the future be a member of the drag-chorus at the Grove. However, I suspect that you'd be awfully hard on a pair of pumps given your weight, etc. In the event you have been a member of the drag-chorus, I would greatly appreciate it if you could forward me a copy of any photographs of you in drag so that my posting on my website can accurately reflect on your activities at the Grove. As I suspect you know, accuracy (aka, due diligence) is a prerequisite to fair and balanced reporting.

In addition to the $18,000 you spent on Grove activities, I was also taken aback by the amount of campaign funds you spent for first class airfare, including a flight on Air France's Concord. This type of unwarranted conduct gives arrogance a bad name.

Please provide me with a copy of your response to the complaint.

Thanks for your time and attention to this matter.

Past, Present Bohemian Grove Members

According to reports on the Internet, the following persons were past or present members of the Grove. Those members that are employed by government entities are a cause of great concern to me. They include members of academia that are paid with public funds. I am personally offended when governmental hacks of any stripe belong to an organization that is unapologetic in its flagrant discrimination based on gender, race, and/or ethnicity.

Equally disconcerting are those elitist corporate bigwigs that are members of the Grove. These so-called worldly men have the audacity to belong to the Grove while at the same time they run companies asking us to purchase their products.

At the end of this listing, you'll see a letter that I will be sending to corporate bigwigs (this one is to the CEO of Proctor and Gamble) and/or governmental agencies asking that they dissociate themselves from any further association with the Bohemian Grove and/or the Bohemian Club.

Alan G. Lafley
CEO/Chairman of the Board
Proctor & Gamble

Re: Membership in and/or Association with Bohemian Grove

Dear Mr. Lafley:

I trust that you are aware of the Bohemian Grove which is located about 80 miles north of San Francisco. My review of the goings on at the Grove and its horrible and historical record of discrimination against women and other minorities has me wondering why a retail products oriented company like yours would have anything to do with the Grove. Go to "Texas Reporter" at www.noethics.net and click onto "Ethics complaint filed v Sen. Wentworth" (pages 107) for more information on the Grove

Due to the secret nature of the Grove I cannot say for sure whether you and/or any other officer/director of Proctor & Gamble is an active member; however, the record clearly indicates that this was the case in the mid-to-late nineties. Although I do not have access to a current member list for the Grove, a process is being put in place to remedy that situation.

Given the fact that P&G sells numerous products aimed directly at women or that are primarily purchased by women such as Clairol, Tide, Pampers, Tampax, Ivory Soap, Charmin, Head & Shoulders, Crest toothpaste, Folgers coffee, Pringles chips, etc., it would be difficult to imagine that P&G would go out of its way to offend 80-90% of its female customer base. Moreover, given the Grove's overt discriminatory practices involving race, ethnicity, social status and/or sexual preference, again I would question why in the world P&G would support, belong, and/or associate with such an organization.

I have three daughters and I personally find the Grove's blatant gender discrimination outrageous. I can't imagine that you would countenance such behavior, right?
