

Today's Attorney Misfit is: Jack Tuckner of New York City

Jackie Baby is the quintessential hypocrite in addition to being a rather disgusting individual. Jackie has the chutzpah to promote himself and his firm, Tuckner, Sipser, Weinstock & Sipser as being advocates for women in need. On his website, Jackie laughingly asserts, "We share the view of feminist Katha Pollitt, who wrote in The Nation on May 13, 2002: "More equality and support, not lowered expectations, is what women need. ... a world with fewer female surgeons, playwrights and professors strikes me as an inferior place to live."

In addition, Jackie's law firm mockingly claims it is a "progressive New York City law firm dedicated to the empowerment of women in the workplace." Jackie goes on to say, "We represent individuals experiencing all forms of workplace discrimination, specifically those affecting women, including sexual harassment..."

Hiring Jackie or his firm to represent a woman in a sexual harassment claim is akin to seeking advice from Jeffrey Dahmer on the efficacy of going on a vegetarian diet.

Jackie's predilection for bondage and sadomasochism

In late May or June, Jackie was sued for sexual harassment by Lisa Brockington, a prior employee of the firm. In her sexual harassment lawsuit, Lisa claimed that Jackie engaged in the following conduct:

- ➡ Jackie watched porn at his desk
- ➡ He discussed his "pierced genitalia"
- ➡ He wore a "bondage [slave] collar" at work as part of a sadomasochistic relationship he has with his girlfriend Mia Metzger [aka, slave-master]
- ➡ He consistently demeaned all of the women who worked for him

Jackie surely gives all dedicated and ethical hypocrites a bad name if ya know what I mean. Here's a buffoon spouting off as a protector of women's rights who is nothing more than a demented and sick individual who finds it acceptable to use women as his play thing.

He then finds pleasure in acting out his perverted fantasies by having his girlfriend play the part of a dominatrix who obediently spansks; whips and/or dons and/or punishes him with the toys pictured below (bondage collar, handcuffs, whips, paddles and/or nipple clamps. What a guy! I suppose when someone tells Jackie that they're gonna whoop his ass, he likely gets aroused.

During my research on Jackie the Perv, I was lucky when I stumbled across a picture of one of the he-man that mentored him in the past as to the proper attire for engaging in a little voluntary or involuntary sadomasochism. Go Jackie!

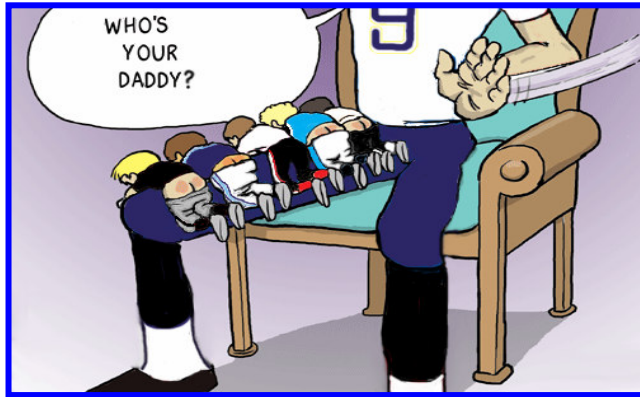

According to Ms. Brockington's lawsuit, she said Jackie told her he was a piercing enthusiast who was "extremely into spanking" [Cool!] and kept a screen saver on his computer that shows him kneeling at the feet of his girlfriend, who was dressed in a black dominatrix outfit. She also said that Jackie called her "Aryan babe" and the ultimate shiksa [disparaging term for non-Jewish women] so highly coveted by inner-city Jews." Brockington went on to say that Jackie told her that "he believed all women have fantasies about being raped."

Jackie's girlfriend is Mia "The Dominatrix" Metzger. After Jackie told Ms. Brockington about Mia, she searched her name on Google and found a Web-site ad in which Mia wrote: "I am a Dominant Woman with a long-term male slave [Jackie]. I seek to add a female service oriented slave to our family," and also a "man who is interested in partnering with me in a cuckold [married man whose wife has sex with other men] relationship."

Mia is presently employed as a "client liaison" at Jackie's law firm. Jackie touts Mia's abilities on the firm's website as: "Mia brings her expertise in Wholistic medicine to TSWS. As a nursing professional, her skills [spanking and bondage] translate seamlessly into an ability to assist potential clients towards healing the wounds created as a result of aggressive spankings, I'm sorry I mean discriminatory experiences. Her close association with Jack Truckner [paddle to butt] and their similar views in which all inhabitants are given equal and fair spankings; I mean treatment creates a cohesive communication which ultimately serves clients.

In order to be excruciatingly fair to Jackie, I suspect that the affection his uncle Merle visited upon him and his cousins as pictured below may well be the cause of his masochistic tendencies.

And lastly, unless you're lookin for a real good ass-whooping, I would avoid seeking any legal services from Jackie the Perv and/or his firm. And if you are, I here tell that Jackie reduces his hourly rate to $300 an hour for any masochistic related services he and/or Mia provide on site.
